Vienna, November 15. N. S.

THE Imperial Troops in Hungary have made themſelves Maſters of the Town of Zolnock on the Tibiſcus, whereby they have opened to themſelves an Entrance into the Country about Tokay and thoſe Parts, where the Malecontents have preſerved themſelves hitherto free and undiſturbed. The Court of Vienna propoſes to draw great Advantages from that Poſt: But as the Plague is not yet ceaſed in that Neighbourhood, and the Infection is ſaid to be got among ſome of the Imperial Regiments, it is believed they will not be able to make ſo conſiderable a Progreſs as might otherwiſe be expected, at leaſt for the preſent. The Election of a Coadjutor to the Archbiſhop and Elector of Mentz being over, Count Schonborn, the Vice-Chancellor of the Empire, who went to aſſiſt at that Choice, is expected back from thence in a ſhort time. The Chapter of Quedlinburg having acquainted his Imperial Majeſty with their having choſen the Princeſs Mary-Elizabeth of Holſtein to be their Abbeſs, the Examination of that Matter is now before the Aulick Chamber, who are to make their Report of the Proceedings, in order to the Emperor's granting his Confirmation of that Election in the uſual Form. The Reſolutions taken by this Court upon the Affairs of Hamburg have been lately diſpatched from hence, by which it is hoped the Differences in that Government, which have been a conſiderable time under the Care and Management of the Imperial Commiſſion there, will ſoon be determined, and that Town be reſtored to its former Tranquility.

Hamburg, Novemoer 25. N. S. Monſieur Alefeld, Vice-Stadtholder and Privy-Counſellor of the King of Denmark, came hither the 14th Inſtant. He has had ſeveral Conferences, ſince his Arrival, with the Miniſters of the Guarantees of the Treaty of Travendahl, upon the ſeveral Points he had in Commiſſion from his Daniſh Majeſty. The Grievances complained of both on the Part of Denmark, and Holſtein, are under Conſideration, and Endeavours will be uſed to adjuſt thoſe Matters to their mutual Satisfaction. Monſieur Alefeld having performed his Orders, left this Town again on Tueſday the 18th. The Burghers of this City have had ſeveral Meetings of late, to conſider the Demand of an Advance of ſixty thouſand Dollars made by the Imperial Commiſſioner, and to ſettle their Quota of Cannon and other Neceſſaries to be employed with the Body of Troops deſigned for the Preſervation of the Neutrality in Germany; and yeſterday they came to a Reſolution to grant the Sum of ſixty thouſand Dollars, and left it to the Senate and the Council of Sixty to find out the Ways and Means of raiſing that Mony: And as to the Cannon, they will conſult the Towns of Luber and Bremen, and determine themſelves according to the Proportions they intend to furniſh. General Meyerfeldt is gone to wait upon his Swediſh Majeſty at Bender. The Plague continues to be violent in ſome Parts of Pomerania, but we don't hear that it advances much nearer to this Place. The Swedes are afraid leſt the Contagion ſhould lay hold of the Body of Troops which they have in that Country. We hear from Dantzick, that the Count de Herberſtein had Audience of his Poliſh Majeſty, being introduced by the Marſhal of the Crown, which had been retarded for ſome time by reaſon of a Diſpute with ſome of the Miniſters of that Court, concerning the firſt Viſit, which the Count inſiſts upon as due to him. One Monſieur Baluz, employed for ſome time by France in Poland and thoſe Parts, has received Orders to repair to the Court of his Czariſh Majeſty.

Bruſſels, November 27. N. S. We have nothing material in this Place, ſince the Duke of Marlborough and the Prince of Savoy left us on Tueſday Morning. We find by the laſt Letters of the 24th from Paris, that the Reports of his Catholick Majeſty's being Retreated towards Catalonia were not true; but that on the contrary our Army was ſtill encamped near Aranjuez, and had ſtill a Garriſon in Toledo. The Enemy pretend to be very ſtrong, and to be able to regain the Poſſeſſion of Madrid in a ſhort time; but the Advices we have from Spain by the way of France are very little to be depended on.

Hague, November 28. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough and the Prince of Savoy embarked laſt Tueſday in the Evening at Antwerp, on Board the Yacht which had been ſent to receive them. They were attended by the Earl of Albemarle, and ſome other General Officers. They met with an ill Paſſage, by reaſon of Fogs and contrary Winds, and did not arrive here 'till late this Evening. The Body of Troops which were ordered to continue in their Poſt upon the Lys, for the Security of the Boats which brought the Artillery and heavy Baggage from Aire, was to ſeparate yeſterday, and march towards their Winter Quarters. Four of the Men of War belonging to Amſterdam, which are deſigned for the Mediterranean, have paſſed the Pampus, and have received their Sailing Orders to make the beſt of their Way towards the Coaſt of England. The reſt of the Ships which are to compoſe that Squadron will be ready to ſail in ſome Days, both from the Texel and the Maeſe. We have advice from France, that the Men of War which ſailed lately from Toulon towards Roſes, to Convoy thither a great Number of Veſſels laden with Ammunition and Proviſions for the French Army in Rouſſillon, met with a very great Storm in the Gulph of Lyons; that a great part of the Tranſports and Storeſhips were loſt on the Coaſt of Languedoc; that the Men of War were driven by ſtreſs of Weather towards Cette, where they were in danger of being Shipwrecked.
